

Gwyn's WINGS kid

Spring report 2008

William

To protect our kids we use an alias and refrain from using a picture that identifies them. We do think shoes say something!

Grade: 3rd

Family status: single parent

Nest: Falcons

Choice Times:

- Tone It Up
- How It's Made

WINGS kids are in a Nest which is a group of 10-12 kids usually the same gender and grade.

Choice Times are 9-week activities the kids participate in. They make up most of the time the kids are at WINGS. Every 9-week school period, kids choose 2 -3 Choice Times based on their interest. They must stick to the choices that they made.

Miscellaneous Fact:

Extended Hand Award

This award is given to kids who are socially aware and show empathy and understanding to other kids in their nest. Kids who win the Extended Hand award "Step into their shoes, to see what they are going through."

A note from Nicole Lovecchio, program director

William is the model WINGS kid. He exemplifies each part of the Creed daily. All the WINGS Leaders admire William's social and emotional intelligence and it's not surprising that he was nominated for four of our end of the year awards and was able to win the WINGS Creed Award for Social Awareness.

Social and Emotional Skills	Fall 2007	Spring 2008
Can they explain why they did something without blaming others?	Often	Almost always
Gets along with other kids and adults?	Almost always	Almost always
One of the best ways to understand what we teach at WINGS is to read the Creed (enclosed) which is recited by kids and staff daily. Our goal is that each child learns the creed, understands it, and practices living the creed until it becomes a way of living.
How many elements of the Creed can be recited?	4	The entire Creed
How many elements of the Creed are understood?	3	The entire Creed
Academics	Fall 2007	Spring 2008
English	88	95
Math	90	90
Social Studies	86	86
Science	94	93